PACKING THE GRIP.
When father packs for traveling
There isn't much to do;
He chuckles his best clean nightshirt in.
A handkerchief or two,
Some collars and a toothbrush,
And his silver-mounted comb.
There's not so much a-doing
When the old man goes from home
And daddy packs the grip!

But when ma goes traveling
And takes us kids along,
Why things is very different,
And it's quite another song.
She first crowds in three nighties
For the baby, me and Ray;
There isn't room for hers, she says.
She doesn't need it, anyway;
But there's brush and combs and scissors,
Soap and powder, needles, thread,
Pins and thimble and court-plaster,
Cause one't I cut my head!
Then there's camphor and witch-hazel,
And there's vasoline and strings,
Paper, pencil, stamps and crackers
And such jolly heaps o' things;
For when we go a-traveling
There's one thing we're agreed—
No one can tell beforehand
Just what us kids will need.
And I speaks for bernannas,
And Ray wants sugar lumps,
And ma is firm for arnica
To bathe our worstest bumps.
Oh, there's lots o' fun a-hustling
To squeeze things good and tight,
And there ain't no use a-talking
For everything's all right
When our ma she packs the grip!
—Good Housekeeping.

EXCITING EXPERIENCE

Former Maysville Lady Discovers Burglar at Home in Lexington

Mrs. C. J. Winkler, formerly Miss Tola Orr of this city, had an exciting experience Sunday night at her home in Lexington.

While her husband was at the Western Union Telegraph Office, where he is employed, a man entered their residence, 418 Pine street.

Hearing a noise like the raising of the dining-room window, Mrs. Winkler opened the door to investigate and was confronted by a burly white man, who was walking toward the door she had just opened.

She screamed loudly, and neighbors rushed to the scene and frightened the man away without capturing him.

A search of the premises was made without result.

Dazed Woman Found at the C. and O. West End Station

Sunday night Policeman Wallace found a woman leaning against the banister at the C. and O. Depot in a half-dazed condition.

She had just alighted from the excursion train.

When questioned she gave her name as Mrs. Steers and said she was the mother of the young man confined in the County Jail charged with being implicated in the robbery at Dover several weeks ago.

She was in a terrible plight, being either drunk or under the influence of some drug.

The officer had a serious time in getting her to a lodging house.

At times she would make the welkin ring with loud outcries and screams, then for a change she would almost faint.

She was neatly and becomingly dressed and rather good-looking.

She was placed in kindly hands where she was cared for until morning.

She left for her home in Covington yesterday.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES

James Seeley Asks Sum of $5,000 From Thomas M. Russell

Through Attorneys Alfred E. Stricklett of Covington and Thomas R. Phister of this city, Mr. James Seeley yesterday filed suit in the Mason Circuit Court against Thomas M. Russell for $5,000 damages.

The suit is the outcome of the automobile accident on May 28th last, in the Fleming pike some six miles out from Maysville.

It will be remembered that Mr. Seeley and Mr. James McNamara, while out driving, were thrown from their vehicle by their horse turning suddenly at sight of Mr. Russell's automobile.

The occupants of the buggy were more or less injured, Mr. Seeley placing his damage at the above amount.

Tedious home work with wearisome pedaling of the sewing machine has small chance in competition with steam-driven sewing machines that make from 1,200 to 2,000 stitches a minute. That is why sheets and pillow cases, ready-made, cost so little more than the plain muslins.

THAT The Courier-Journal has a way of its own in "hitting the nail on the head," is shown by this—

"The Government Printing Office, which spends $7,000,000 of the taxpayers' money annually, most of it unnecessarily, is notoriously mismanaged grossly in the interest of the politicians and grafters; it being well known by those familiar with the printing business that private printers would do the work better for half the money. It is a striking illustration of the methods and results of 'Government control.'"

Don't attach too much importance to the reported riots in Tokio. Think of the anti-draft riots in New York in 1863, when more than 1,000 men were killed; of the Commune in Paris, following the defeat of France by Germany, in 1871, when more than 60,000 persons were killed and one-fourth of the city was destroyed. Tokio will survive the outbreak of her stay-at-home "patriots," just as New York and Paris did theirs.

THE differences between true temperance and "temperance" was so long ago as 1895 pointed out by the veteran Canadian Editor, GOLDWIN SMITH, in an article on "Prohibition in Canada," in which he said:

"The party usually calls itself that of Temperance. Temperance is one thing, total abstinence another, and coercion, at which these reformers aim, is a third. As temperance implies self-restraint, there can be no temperance, in the proper sense of the term, where there is coercion. The 'Temperance' people are not usually inclined to listen to anything so rationalistic as the lessons of experience. They tell you that with them it is not a matter of expediency, but of principle; that their cause is the cause of Heaven; yours, if you are an opponent, that of the darker power; and they intimate with more or less of gentleness and courtesy, what, if you persist in getting in Heaven's way, will be your deserved and inevitable doom."

IN Hesse, Germany, a tax has been put on bachelors, who now have to pay 25% more in taxes than married men; and the reason for this is, probably, that married men have so much less money to pay with.

THE Japanese Plenipotentiaries gave $10,000 to be divided among the charities of New Hampshire. As the Russian Envoys put up at the St. Regis in New York, it took all their kopeks to pay the hotel bill.

"Personal liberty still lives and the rights of property are secure. Persuasion used to accomplish a wrongful purpose is as unlawful as violence."

This is the heading of pamphlets just issued by the Employers Association of Cincinnati. They contain the injunction of Judge ROSEA, enjoining the iron molders from compelling, or attempting to compel, or induce by threats, intimidation, force, violence or unlawful persuasion any of the employees of the I. & E. Greenwald Company to leave its service, and the Judge's decision in the contempt proceedings, in which he fined two of the officers of the Molders Union $100 and costs for violating the injunction.

Secretary CHARLES F. WALTZ of the Employers Association has had ten thousand of the pamphlets printed, and they will be sent throughout the country. In the introduction Mr. WALTZ says:

"The decisions made by the Hon. LEWIS M. ROSEA, Judge of the Superior Court of Cincinnati in the moulders strike have become famous throughout the country. They are landmarks in the judicial history of the industrial conflict, and are sought for everywhere by those desiring to re-establish personal liberty and property rights, too long ignored by the authorities and practically destroyed by strikers."

AN AWFUL SKIN DISEASE

Sores Covered Neck and Cheeks—Itched Day and Night—Nothing Did Me Any Good—Was Growing Worse.

CURED BY CUTICURA AT COST OF $4.50

Miss Nellie Vander Wiele, of Lakeside, N. Y., writing under date of April 18, 1904, says: "I do wish you would publish this letter in the newspapers, so that others suffering as I have may see it and be helped. I suffered for many months with an awful skin disease, sores covering my ears, neck, and cheeks. Scabs would form and they would swell, and itch day and night. Then they would break open and blood and matter run out. I had tried many different remedies, but none of them did me any good. I was growing worse when I tried the Cuticura Remedies. The first application helped me, and when I had used two cakes of Cuticura Soap, three boxes of Cuticura Ointment, and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, I was completely cured."

TORTURING, DISFIGURING Humours, Eczemas, Itchings, and Chafings Cured by Cuticura

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalled head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter, and salt rheum, all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt by the testimony of the civilized world.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Proprietors, Boston. Send for "How to Cure Skin Humours."

MUST PAY DEBTS

Good News For the Creditors of Some Postoffice Clerks

The following from Postmaster General Cortelyou will be glad news to many long-waiting creditors, and bad news to some long-winded debtors.

WASHINGTON, September 9.—Postmasters throughout the country must pay their debts or retire from the public service.

Worried beyond endurance by the army of collectors seeking the payment of debts contracted by Clerks in the Department, the Postmaster General has issued an order in which he announces that the Department "will not harbor any one who contracts a debt on the strength of his official position and then, without sufficient excuse, neglects to make payment."

This is taken to apply to Postmasters as well.

O'DONNELL.

Born, yesterday morning to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. O'Donnell of Market street, a daughter, making a quartette of girls for the happy father.

The Rev. Walter Lowrie has accepted the call to Old Trinity, Newport, R. I. It is one of the most famous Churches of America. Washington's pew is there—furnished as it was when he attended.

The pigmies at present in England are giants compared with some of the tribes of natives who inhabit the wild, desolate and almost unknown Pamir plateau to the Northwest of the Hindoo Koosh range of mountains in Central Asia. The full grown men and women are rarely a yard high. Their donkeys and horses in appearance resemble our smallest ponies. The bulls and cows—fierce little creatures—are no larger than a new-born European calf, and the sheep are about the size of small poodles. Tigers no larger than kittens are said to infest the hills.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

HAPPY WOMEN.

Plenty of Them in Maysville, and Good Reason For It.

Wouldn't any woman be happy, After years of backache suffering, Days of misery, nights of unrest, The distress of urinary troubles, She finds relief and cure?

No reason why any Maysville reader Should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Mrs. Lizzie Burns, living on the Blue Run Turnpike, West End, Maysville, Ky., says:

"My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills which I expressed through our newspapers in the spring of 1900 has not altered. I value this preparation more highly today than I did when I gave my first testimonial. Before I got Doan's Kidney Pills at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore I was troubled with severe spells of backache and kidney complaint, which came on every three or six months, and there were times when I was confined to my bed and rendered almost helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have noticed slight returns of backache since, but an appeal to Doan's Kidney Pills has never failed to quickly and positively check the trouble. In every case I know among my friends when Doan's Kidney Pills have been used the results have always been satisfactory."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
